GLDESIGN

Welcome to GLDESIGN where laid back coastal vibes meet timeless chic living. Inspired by a childhood spent on the coast of France and a wanderlust fed by New England shorelines, California dreams and pastel Florida seascapes, founder Gaelle Dudley weaves beach living into each client's lifestyle. From interiors to exteriors, renovation to new construction, the coast is never far from the heart in every project.

MARKETPLACE

INNOVATIONS

I love Innovations' Yosemite paper for office walls. It is organic and subtle enough that it does not distract while working, yet it brings a sophisticated and chic backdrop for those Zoom calls. Innovations, D&D, innovationsusa.com.

DESIGNERS GUILD

Let's not forget the ceiling, especially if you are spending a considerable amount of time in your work-from-home office space. The graphic and edgy Mandora design by Designers Guild makes the most out of this fifth wall. It is tailored and stylish, balancing the serenity of the walls—the result is an overall design that has that “wow” factor, while still feeling calm and collected. Available through Osborne & Little, D&D, osborneandlittle.com, designersguild.com.

PHILLIP JEFFRIES

The artisan nature of Wabi Sabi Walls wallpaper makes for a really inviting space for any family room. It can read as coastal, organic or sophisticated. Its multilayered mix of materials, with a handcrafted effect, elevates any room with both visual and textural interest. I love how it delivers instant architecture, without any additional millwork. This paper is great for warming up those open floor plan spaces to create a comfortable haven. D&D, phillipjeffries.com.
