

HAMPTON DESIGNER SHOWHOUSE

Presented by HC&G, the 21st edition of the Hampton Designer Showhouse took place in Southampton's historic Ivy Lodge, which dates from the mid-1800s and was beautifully transformed by 22 talented design firms, all to raise funds benefiting Stony Brook Southampton Hospital. Read on for more about how great design can benefit a good cause.

CHAD JAMES GROUP

FOYER

Designer Chad James aimed to “tap back into what the house once was in the 1800s, with a nod to the era of grand estates.” Against a backdrop of a floral wall covering from the Vale London, furnishings include a French buffet and various antique pieces from James’s travels. “It’s an unusually special space that has tons of character,” the designer says.

THE LEWIS DESIGN GROUP

STUDY

For the study, Barbara Lewis of the Lewis Design Group chose a decorating scheme of soft greens layered with organic textures and natural motifs.

“I was instantly taken with the room’s view of the property’s beautiful trees,” Lewis says, “and was inspired to embrace a biophilic design, connecting the space to nature.” A floral Lee Jofa fabric on the windows and faux bois pattern from Nobilis on the walls helped her achieve her goal.
